On June 16, 2026, Altimmune, Inc. (the “Company”) announced plans to relocate its corporate headquarters from Gaithersburg, Maryland to Morristown, New Jersey later this year. The new headquarters is in a geography with a strong presence of biopharmaceutical companies, which is expected to support the Company’s ability to attract top-tier talent in its hybrid business model, as the Company continues its growth as a late-stage development company.

The Company has entered into an office lease agreement for the New Jersey headquarters where the Company will make rent payments of approximately $300,000 annually for the 5-year lease term. The move of the headquarters is expected to help the company achieve cost efficiencies over the long term.
